WALLACE GARFIELD HAYNER PAPERS, 1933-1973

Accession Number: 93

Processed by: Cora P. Teel

Date completed: September 1975

Location: Special Collections Department

This collection was the gift of Mr. Wallace Hayner, and was received April 1, 1975.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Mr. Hayner removed the bulk of this collection in November 1979 . However, much of the collection was added again at another point prior to an inventory in October of 2019. When these materials were returned, the original order was not kept. There is only one record carton rather than five smaller boxes as seen in the original finding aid, which is preserved below. The five boxes within the new single box are not in the same order, and the content is instead found in the following order: box 3, box 2, box 4, box 5, and box 1. The order of the materials within each box is approximately the same, though some folders were noted to be missing.

Linear feet of shelf space: 1 3/4

CONTENT AND SCOPE OF THE COLLECTION

Huntington, W. Va. insurance agent; papers consist of his correspondence and personal papers. Included are a manuscript of a history of West Virginia compiled from secondary sources and oral tradition, personal reminiscences of 'Devil Anse' Hatfield, poetry, and personal papers.

WALLACE GARFIELD HAYNER, 1900-

Wallace Garfield Hayner was born on March 5, 1900 at Curry, near Chapmanville, Logan County, West Virginia, the son of John and Ann Lilly Hayner. He was educated at local schools, received a degree in engineering from Carnegie Institute of Technology by Correspondence, and graduated from Marshall College in 1924. He taught school at the age of eighteen, worked as a division engineer for the Seaboard Airline Railroad from 1923 until 1927, worked briefly in a coal mine, and in August, 1927, he joined the Prudential Life Insurance Company, remaining with this firm until his retirement as manager in 1965.

He married the former Violet Etta Nottingham, a native of Pocahontas County, on July 3, 1926. They were the parents of four daughters.

Mr. Hayner was active in many civic affairs in Huntington, including raising support for county high schools and a technical-vocational high school, and serving as chairman of the Cabell County Republican Finance Committee.

Mr. Hayner was also the subject of an interview conducted for the Marshall University Oral History of Appalachia project. The tape and transcript, open to the public, are located in the Special Collections Department of the James E. Morrow Library.

Mr. Hayner died in Charleston, W. Va. on April 21, 1988.
